The decision to team should not be considered lightly, as teaming is spiritually, emotionally and physically labor intensive.

If you have any special needs or physical limitations that must be considered when assigning JOBS or ROOM locations please explain:

Additional considerations for room assignments:

Smoker? Yes / No Do you use a C-pap Machine? Yes / No Do you snore? Yes / No

Please list previous teaming experience (Emmaus, Cursillo, Credo, Kairos, etc.) – the jobs and talks you have done:

Do you have a special talent (singing, musical instrument, liturgical dance, signing, etc.) that you might like to share on the weekend or during the teaming process?

How do you see yourself ministering and serving during this teaming experience?

Is there anything else you would like to share about yourself?

WV/MD Women's Credo requires a minimum "clean time" from chemical substances of six (6) months for teaming. Do you certify that you have at least six (6) months of "clean time" and that you will respectfully withdraw from teaming if you do not meet that requirement at any time up to date of the Credo weekend?

YES NO

By submitting this application, I am accepting God's call and making a commitment to attend all team meetings. There are eight team meetings, starting July 28, 2023. Team meetings are held on Friday evening, begin at 6:30 and last approximately two hours. Team meeting attendance is critical. Each team meeting builds on the one before it, just as each talk builds on its former during the weekend. When the team commits to building Christian community, we become united under God's agenda; pray with one focus and serve with one goal. Therefore, team members are expected to attend all meetings in their entirety. The Rectora should be notified, in advance, if a meeting needs to be missed.

Team Meeting Dates: 07/28/2023, 08/04/2023, 08/11/2023, 08/18/2023, 08/25/2023, 09/8/2023, 09/15/2023, and 09/22/2023. Credo 47 Weekend October 5-8, 2023.

Retreat Weekend: Team members are required to be fully present, both physically and mentally for the entire retreat weekend. Women whose family and/or job obligations require them to divide their time and energy should change their status to "Angel". Leaving an activity or the retreat site for personal reasons, such as telecommuting, work, childcare issues or doctor's appointments is not permitted.

ALL team members remain with the group unless they are fulfilling a requirement of their job assignment. ALL team members are required to assist with clean up on Sunday after the closing.
